

What is School SEN Information Report?

- As part of the Children and Families Bill 2014, all schools are required to make available their local SEND Information Report to families. This details how they can support children and young people with a special educational need and/or disability (SEND).
- A child or young person has special educational needs if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.

Definition of SEND

A child has a learning difficulty or disability if he or she:

- Has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or
- Has a disability which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools.

SEN Code of Practice (July 2014)

Overview of the school

This is achieved through on-going training and professional development opportunities. Through the school year, a number of staff training sessions are spent on SEND and new practices.

Curriculum

1. How will the curriculum be matched to my child's needs?

- In our curriculum, Malmesbury C of E Primary identifies key learning which we believe every child should access regardless of their Special Needs. Staff 'scaffold' key learning, offering as much support as necessary for children to access the curriculum. This is achieved through high quality planning and quality first teaching.
- Some children may require more focused support, and additional adults may be used to provide support where appropriate. Children who are more able will be challenged to take their learning into greater depth, which is also supported by the staff.
- Some children may have additional needs which may require short or longer term interventions or some additional support.
- Some children who have a special educational need may require personalised targeted interventions to support their learning and enable them to access the curriculum.
- The school assessment tracking system is used to track and monitor the small steps of progress made by our pupils with additional needs and to also inform teacher planning to ensure that activities are well matched to individual needs.

2. Who can I talk to, and how, if I am not happy with what or how my child is learning?

- The first point of contact for parents or carers is always your child's class teacher.
- Parents and carers are welcome to speak informally to teachers after the school day or request a formal appointment.
- Class teachers also hold formal Parent Consultation Evenings twice a year.
- Pupils and their families with either an EHCP or a SEN Support Plan will take part in regular, extended review meetings.
- Any parent or carer of a pupil with special educational needs is also welcome to speak informally to the SENDCo before or after the school day, or request a formal appointment.
- Additional points of contact are:
